1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 One day after the Court granted Defendants' motion to dismiss pursuant to 3 Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) for lack of patent-eligible subject matter under 35 U.S.C. §
 4 101, see ECF No. 43, Plaintiff filed a motion to alter judgment under Fed. R. Civ.
 5 P. 59(e). Plaintiff contends that "there are no facts in this action which support" the 6 Court's ruling, notwithstanding the extensive detailed reasoning set forth in the 7 Court's Order that addresses all of the facts and arguments Plaintiff had raised in 8 opposing the motion to dismiss. See ECF No. 45-1. Because Plaintiff's motion 9 does not meet the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(e) and fails to comply with the 10 Local Rules of this Court, it should be denied.

11 II. ARGUMENT

12 A motion to alter judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(e) is "an extraordinary 13 remedy which should be used sparingly," granted only in "highly unusual 14 circumstances." See McDowell v. Calderon, 197 F.3d 1253, 1255 n.1 (9th Cir.
 15 1999) (affirming denial of motion to alter judgment in absence of clear error). A 16 party seeking to alter judgment must show (a) a material difference in fact or law 17 that could not have been known to the moving party prior to the decision, (b) new 18 material facts or a change of law after the time of such decision, or (c) a manifest
 19 showing of a failure to consider material facts presented to the Court before such 20 decision. See L.R. 7-18; Tawfils v. Allergan, Inc., No. 15-cv-307, 2015 U.S. Dist.
 21 LEXIS 175629, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 14, 2015) (L.R. 7-18 coextensive with Fed.
 22 R. Civ. P. 59(e)). Plaintiff's motion does not fall within any of these grounds.

23 A. Plaintiff Improperly Seeks To Relitigate the Same Arguments
 24 Already Considered and Rejected by the Court

25 Plaintiff does not contend that there are any new facts or law that could not
 26 have been known to him prior to the Court's decision granting Defendants' motion
 27 to dismiss, or that there are any new material facts that were discovered or a change

1 in law that occurred during the one day following the Court's decision.¹ Plaintiff
 2 also cannot point to any material fact that the Court did not already consider in 3 rendering its decision. Instead, Plaintiff points to Exhibit 404 attached to his sur-
 4 reply that contained various webpages using the term "calculate," in order to rehash
 5 his position that calculating a steradian region of space is not abstract. See ECF No.
 6 45-1 at 2; ECF No. 41. None of the arguments and facts in Plaintiff's Rule 59(e)
 7 motion were unknown prior to or newly discovered subsequent to the Court's
 8 decision granting the motion to dismiss. See ECF No. 43 at 1 n.1, 10-11. Plaintiff
 9 cannot relitigate old issues or re-present evidence already considered by the Court.
 10 See also L.R. 7-18 (motion for reconsideration may not repeat any argument made 11 as part of original briefing); accord Shortridge v. Found. Constr. Payroll Serv., 12 LLC, No. 14-cv-04850, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 81422, at *8 (N.D. Cal. June 23, 13 2015) (denying plaintiff's motion to reconsider for improperly relitigating
 14 arguments already raised in opposing motion under 35 U.S.C. § 101).

15 B. Plaintiff Has Failed To Show Any Error, Let Alone "Clear Error"

16 Plaintiff does not even attempt to show how the Court erred in considering 17 all of his arguments prior to the decision granting Defendants' motion to dismiss.
 18 See Tawfils, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 175629, at *3 (denial of motion to reconsider 19 deemed harmless error where court considered misstatements of facts that did not 20 affect outcome). Plaintiff fails to explain how the alleged lack of facts in the record
 21 or the previously considered Exhibit 404 could possibly change the Court's 22 conclusion that the claims of the '710 patent are unpatentable under the applicable

23 ¹ Five days after Plaintiff filed his motion to alter judgment, the Federal 24 Circuit issued its decision in Bascom Global Internet Services, Inc. v. AT&T
Mobility LLC, No. 2015-1763, 2016 U.S. App. LEXIS 11687, at *16 (Fed. Cir.
 25 June 27, 2016), holding that a specific method of filtering Internet content of the 26 patent-in-suit was not generic or conventional. Since the claimed method in Bascom is distinguishable and the Federal Circuit confirmed that the Supreme 27 Court's two-step framework is the proper test for Section 101 analysis, see id. at 28 *11, this is not a change in the law and does not affect the Court's decision granting Defendants' motion to dismiss in this case.

1 law. Thus, there is no error, let alone the requisite “manifest error,” to justify
2 granting the extraordinary remedy of post-judgment relief under Fed. R. Civ. P.
3 59(e) and the Local Rules. See McDowell, 197 F.3d at 1255 n.1; L.R. 7-18.

4 III. CONCLUSION

5 Based on the foregoing, Autodesk, Inc., NVIDIA Corp., and Pixar
6 respectfully request that the Court deny Plaintiff’s motion to alter judgment
7 pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(e).
